The CAAC is in the third year of our current division alignment. According to our by-laws it is time begin the process of possible re-alignment. The group feels secure the divisions are currently in a good place and schools feels competitive and secure in the current configuration. A motion was made by St. Johns and seconded by Haslett to remain in our current configuration for the next 4 years. Motion carries 18-1.

The CAAC received a letter of interest from Parma-Western High School to join the CAAC for the fall of 2022 Tom Hunt and Brian Osborn met with representative from Parma-Western. No letter of application has been received.

The group discussed the shortage of officials and will address any schedule changes within the division meetings.

Pre and post-game procedures were discussed keeping Covid protocols and sportsmanship at the forefront. No league wide procedure was suggested or agreed upon. The group trusts the home school to identify and communicate any procedures.

Format for the Senior Scholar Athlete Ceremony was discussed. The possibility to hire an outside firm to handle the media presentation was identified as a possibility. Nikki Norris will talk with ELPS local access coordinator for assistance.

The group adjourned into division meetings. Basketball schedules were adjusted to accommodate officials.

All Athletic Directors were reminded to get all spring and fall schedules to appropriate assignors.

Next Meeting, March 10, 2021 - TBD.
