Teri Reyburn and Sam Davis presented to the group on behalf of the Lansing Wrestling Officials Association in preparation for the 2024-2025 season.

The Sportsmanship Committee met and discussed team handshakes lines and the importance of administration supervision at home and away games.

There is still no host for the JV Wrestling meet scheduled for January 31st. 4 Mats will be needed for the event.

AD's are reminded to check schedules in the Arbiter and make sure they are correct. Not all games have been assigned. Make sure the game is there and information is correct.

The Competition Committee will meet December 4th at Williamston High School.

There has been an Instagram posting of CAAC all-conference teams that is incorrect and not sanctioned by the CAAC. Our logo was used in the post without approval.

Tom Kinder reached out regarding the Lugnut game outing that usually occurs in the late summer before fall sports begin. Tom suggested we consider a change and have the event early in the summer and make it more of an end of school year celebration.

Schools are considering changing scheduling software. This would change the status of the CAAC relationship with Schedule Star/Big Teams. Tom will reach out to Eventlink to present at a future meeting.

Position statements should be completed and submitted by December 20th.

Next Meeting: December 11, 2024 - MHSAA Office.
